

1. How could the instructor improve the course?

DELVE DEEPER INTO HOW MATERIAL APPLIES
THROUGH TO CLASS AND RACE ISSUES, RATHER THAN ONLY STICKING TO "SAFER" GENDER ISSUES.

2. What has the instructor done especially well in the teaching of this course?

ENCOURAGE / ALLOW DISCUSSION,
GOOD FEEDBACK REGARDING CLASS
TOPICS AND PAPER IDEAS.

1. How could the instructor improve the course?

Have class outside on Sunny days ☺.

2. What has the instructor done especially well in the teaching of this course?

He had excellent examples and explanations. Dan Ryan is honestly the best professor I have ever had in my three years at Mills. He teaches students a lot, is extremely prepared, available, and enthusiastic. He makes ~~the~~ sure the material is accessible to his students.

1. How could the instructor improve the course?

Give paper suggestions/themes like he did on the 1st paper. No journals, more footnote follow-ups.

2. What has the instructor done especially well in the teaching of this course?

Discussions on readings, setting our own deadlines, giving students freedom of learning/working on topics of interest.

1. How could the instructor improve the course?

Maybe a little less material. But otherwise a great class.

2. What has the instructor done especially well in the teaching of this course?

Made me look at everyday life through a different lense.

1. How could the instructor improve the course?

Stricter time deadlines for assignments.

2. What has the instructor done especially well in the teaching of this course?

Excellent enthusiasm, great reading selection. I enjoyed the interaction online w/ fellow students & "visiting" lecturers. ~~It~~ Don makes it easy to enjoy the material & apply it to "everyday life."

Thank you Don!!!

1. How could the instructor improve the course?

- narrowing the reading/being more realistic about reading list
- facilitating paper topics

2. What has the instructor done especially well in the teaching of this course?

- Being excited and knowledgeable of the material
- Relating material to our own everyday lives
- Level of commitment to students + course.

1. How could the instructor improve the course? Deadlines, Deadlines, Deadlines!!!

I had know idea what was expected of me.

Although he was very available at the ~~start~~ start of the semester, he was not available toward the end when I personally needed it the most.

He is ~~a~~ a little hot + cold.

2. What has the instructor done especially well in the teaching of this course?

Because of his ~~love~~ love for his field, he was able to engage my interest. ~~He~~ He demands a lot. I like this trait and wish more teachers had it.

1. How could the instructor improve the course?

If really depends on individual learning style, but I could have used more structure on the assignments.

The review class towards the end of the semester was inspiring - but I wish it had come earlier in the class.

2. What has the instructor done especially well in the teaching of this course?

Excitement of subject matter - very interested in the subject.

It really forced me to look at the world differently!

1. How could the instructor improve the course?

Maybe difficult in a class about every day life, but sometimes the discussion degenerated into just "rapping." Prof. could have guided the discussion back to a more scholarly level.

Return papers faster.

2. What has the instructor done especially well in the teaching of this course?

Not a complaint, but curious why so many examples of dating, mating + sexual situations?
- The professor kept appropriate boundaries at all times though.

1. How could the instructor improve the course?

2. What has the instructor done especially well in the teaching of this course?

DAN IS AN excellent presenter,
AND creates excitement for the subject -
His personal energy adds greatly to the classroom and the subject
